DETAILED ACTION

1. Upon further review, the examiner has withdrawn the requirement for election as set forth in the previous Office Action.

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 1-16 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-7 of U.S. Patent No. 6,761,599. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because all of the currently claimed limitations are within the patented claims, and therefore the current claims are not patentably distinct thereover.

Since claim 12 renders the cable structure of claim 11 moot, claims 11-16 are rejectable under Double Patenting.

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 3617

5. Claims 17-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 17 is dependent upon itself, and therefore its dependency is unclear. Claims 17-19 cannot be further treated on the merits for this reason.

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 11-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Borst et al.

Borst et al. Discloses the claimed invention, including first and second brackets. Fittings 63 and 65 are provided, and engage within opposite ends of the bore. Such fittings are themselves provided with a bore which accommodates a cable tube therewithin, and a cable 41 being reciprocatingly received therewithin.

Re claim 12, such is not a positive recitation of such function, merely a statement that such is possible, and in the instant case, such is inherent.

8. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Treinen et al.

Art Unit: 3617

Treinen et al. discloses the claimed invention, including s cylindrical bore 202 extending through the first and second brackets coaxial with the rotation axis, and having a piston and rod within the bore, and operatively connected to the propulsion unit for steering same.

Re claim 3, "comprises a cylinder for the actuator", such fails to define any specific structure and/or arrangement so as to define over Treinen et al., as such bracket has/forms a cylinder which houses the actuator.
